

RETURN POLICY

We guarantee consumer satisfaction. If you are not satisfied with your purchase, you may return one or several items for refund within ten working days following receipt of goods. Shipping fees are not refundable.

The item needs to be returned in its original state. Clothing pieces shall not have been worn nor washed. Broken goods or torn material will not be refunded. Make sure that your return package is well protected against potential shipping damage. It is your responsibility to return goods in the same state as received.

Return packing and shipping fees are the responsibility of the customer.

After having received your package, the refund will be made through the same financial means as used for the original purchase. The return process may take up to 28 days. We will refund the price paid for the goods at time of purchase.

All returns must include the return form fully completed. Click here to access the return form.
